

Commuting Profile of Vermont

(partial analysis where resident commuter traffic is >5% of county residents in largest counties – 80% of State)

Graphic indicates where the Residents of each county work. Note that the % in circles represents the % of county residents who both work and reside in the county.

FINDING: On average 42% of each VT county residents work in a county outside of their own (and consequently away from their Home school district). This represents 36% of the total working population residents of these 8 counties

Source: Vermont Economic and Demographic Profile Series 2016